

Philippians 2 : 5-11

A Good Look At Our Great Lord (Part 2)

In our last look at this passage we learned some great truths about the eternal presence of Jesus as God and we discovered just how uniquely miraculous His existence is as the God-Man. Now we'll focus our attention on the issue of His humanness. Okay, Jesus was/is a human being. What's so special about that? You'll be blessed and amazed by the Bible's answers to that question.

For Thought & Talk

1. Why is it that Jesus had to be both God and man to pay for our sins? What does it mean to you to know that Jesus frees us from the penalty, power, and shame/guilt of your sin?

2. Can you recall the ways that PJ shared which help us understand how Jesus is an example for us in terms of how to live? cf. John 13:15; 1 Timothy 1:16; 1 Peter 2:21. In what ways are these specific qualities taking root in your life? Why is it important that they do?

3. For you personally, what's the best thing about knowing that Jesus is God? That He is human?

4. Re-visit the three ways from vv. 9-11 that Jesus wants us to respond to Him. Which of these responses is easiest for you to give? What is your plan for growing in relation to the harder for you to give response(s)?
