Living With Momentum

In our previous study of Philippians, we were reminded by Paul's own personal story that the greatest treasure in all of life is being relationally intertwined with Jesus Christ at every point of one's existence. Experiencing that connection with Him, to the uttermost, is the ultimate joy! So, building upon that theme, the Apostle now shares some vital truths for keeping our spiritual life fresh, free and moving in step with our Lord. You see, following Jesus is always about forward momentum. It can never be about "sitting this one out on the sidelines." We have to realize that spiritual stagnation is a constant threat to Christians. How then do we avoid going "flat line" in our walk with Christ and instead keep going onward & upward with Him? That's what the Scriptures will answer for us today. Here's what we have to grasp to live our lives with the spiritual momentum the Holy Spirit makes available to us ...
